Murabaha Plus Card Terms and Conditions

13- Documents
A-	The Bank will not be obliged to send invoices, receipts or vouchers to the Cardholder. If the Cardholder requests copies of these documents, this will be subject to certain fees if the transactions are valid, and if they are not, the Bank will waive these fees.
B-	The Client must approve the value of the Promissory Notes that require approval through the approved platforms, where this is required as part of the activation phases of the Cards or to enable the use of the Credit Limit of the Cards.
14- Card Cancellation/Reissuance/Suspension of these Terms and Conditions
A-	The Bank reserves the right at all times to cancel/reissue the Card or any additional Cards and to suspend these Terms and Conditions with or without prior notice. In such case, the Cardholder shall be obligated to return the Cards and additional Cards (if any) to the Bank after having destroyed them by cutting the Card in half through the magnetic stripe. Upon the occurrence of such cancellation or termination, all overdue or outstanding amounts on the account of the card and additional cards shall become due and payable to the Bank and shall be immediately demanded before the Bank executes its request to cancel the card.
B-	The Cardholder may request that the Card and additional cards be canceled. These Terms and Conditions may be suspended by written notice accompanied by the cards to be canceled to the Bank after they have been destroyed by tearing/cutting them in half through the magnetic stripe on them. Upon such request, all overdue amounts on the card or additional cards (if any) shall become due and payable to the Bank and immediately on demand. If the customer decides not to obtain the card and does not activate or utilize the card within ten business days, the Bank shall refund the fees and commissions charged to the Client.
C-	Cancellation of the Credit Card or termination of these Terms and Conditions will not have any negative repercussions or impact on matters or transactions that have already taken place or have been committed to prior to such cancellation or termination, nor will it have any impact on the operation of the account unless the customer decides and requests the Bank to do otherwise.
D-	After the cancellation of the Card, if any amounts have been authorized by the Cardholder and not deducted by the Merchant, the Bank reserves the right to claim the amounts paid to the Merchant in accordance with the regulations governing the same
15- Mechanism of the card six years after its issuance
